

Glacier County 4-H Member Recognition Awards

All nominations are due in the Glacier County Extension office (1210 E. Main, Cut Bank, MT 59427 by the Awards Interview deadline in late August):

Congratulations on completing another year in 4-H. As you finish your project books and journals, remember that you can also apply for Glacier County 4-H Awards. These are sponsored by the Glacier County 4-H Council.

There are several levels for the awards which are on the following pages. Each level has a brief description of what a 4-H member must do to earn the award. You may nominate yourself for the award and then have your 4-H leader sign off on the nomination form.

1. Read the directions carefully, each Achievement Level has different requirements.
2. Fill out the Glacier 4-H Member Recognition Form (page 2). Circle the achievement level that you want to be considered for.
3. Fill out the Achievement Level form that shows what you have done to earn recognition.
 - a. Clover – page 6
 - b. Emerald – page 7
 - c. Bronze – page 8 and 9
 - d. Silver – page 10 and 11
 - e. Gold – page 12 and 13
4. On pages 3 – 5 is a list of optional activities that may be used on the different award forms. All optional activities must be related to the 4-H program. If you have done a 4-H activity that is not listed on the optional activities sheet, please call the Extension office and we'll see how we can make it work.
5. Make sure your 4-H leaders has reviewed and signed off on the nomination form.
6. Turn in the nomination form to the Extension office by the deadline.

Please contact the Extension office if you have any questions at 406-873-2239 or kari.lewis@montana.edu.
