

ROUGH CUT SCIENCE

This spring we are highlighting graduate students working on socio-ecological systems. Join us to learn more about current research, explore interdisciplinary connections, and network with colleagues.

FEBRUARY 18
BYKER AUDITORIUM,
12 PM

Sophie Lattes and Emma Kubinski
Topic: Managing weeds in Montana agroecosystems
Advisors: Dr. Fabian Menalled and Dr. Mac Burgess
Department of Land Resources & Environmental Sciences

MARCH 4
BYKER AUDITORIUM,
12 PM

Simon Fordyce
Topic: Remote sensing water availability in a drought susceptible agroecosystem
Advisor: Dr. Eric Sproles
Department of Earth Sciences

MARCH 11
GAINES 243,
12 PM

Laura Dykstra
Topic: Sharp-tailed grouse reintroduction to western Montana
Advisor: Dr. Lance McNew
Department of Animal & Range Sciences

MARCH 25
BYKER AUDITORIUM,
12 PM

Kayode Fesomade
Topic: Prescribed fire and its impact on people and communities
Advisor: Dr. Rob Walker
Department of Chemistry & Biochemistry

APRIL 1
BYKER
AUDITORIUM, 12
PM

Angus Cummings
Topic: Bison purity in Yellowstone National Park
Advisor: Dr. Michael Reidy
Department of History & Philosophy

APRIL 8
BYKER
AUDITORIUM, 12
PM

Rachael Dines
Topic: Whitebark pine status in the northern GYE
Dr. Dan Atwater
Department of Animal & Range Sciences

APRIL 15
BYKER AUDITORIUM,
12 PM

Hannah Stewart
Topic: Human dimensions of wildfire planning
Dr. Sarah Church
Department of Earth Sciences

WEBEX LINK

Meeting number: 2339 477 1539
Password: 2MibMYN7Hc4

www.montana.edu/ioe/