B. Attachment A – Contractor-Engineer Electronic Data License and Release Agreement

Contractor – Engineer
Electronic Data License and Release Agreement

This Agreement, dated the ____ day of May 2026, is entered into by _____ _____ (the “Contractor”) and DJ&A (the “Engineer”). Contractor has requested construction document information in the form of electronic data for the Reconstruction of Parking Lot 21 CAD file, located in Bozeman, MT (the “Project”). Electronic data includes electronic disk, electronic tape, electronic mail, electronic network, and all other methods for electronically storing, transmitting, or viewing information. Engineer grants Contractor a limited license to reproduce such data for this Project only. Further:

1. Due to the potential that the information set forth as electronic data can be modified by the Contractor or others, unintentionally or otherwise, the Engineer may, at its option, remove all references to its corporate name, professional seal, and/or involvement from each electronic display, as well as non-graphic information such as text and symbols and any proprietary information.
2. Under no circumstances shall the transfer of ownership of such electronic data, or printed copy thereof, be deemed to be a sale by the Engineer of tangible goods, and the Engineer makes no warranties, express or implied, of merchantability or of fitness for a particular purpose.
3. The electronic stat may represent only a portion of the construction document information and, as such, it may be incomplete. Engineer makes no representation as to its completeness, currency or accuracy and Engineer shall not be responsible to advise Contractor of any changes which may hereafter be made to the electronic data and the Contract Documents, the information in the sealed Plans and Specifications shall be used.
4. Engineer retains all copyrights to the designs, drawings, information and Engineering Works depicted in the electronic data and grants to Contractor a limited license to reproduce such information in connection with Contractor’s work on the Project, and no other.
5. The use of such information will be at Contractor’s sole risk and without any liability, risk or legal exposure to the Engineer. The Contractor agrees to waive and release all claims or potential claims against the Engineer and their respective officers, directors, employees, agents and servants relating to, or arising out of, the use of the electronic data and the information contained in it, by reason of any act or omission of such parties, under any legal theories whatsoever, specifically including the negligence of any released party. The Contractor shall have the right to use this information to prepare record drawings and to share this information with subcontractors or suppliers for use
